INFORMATION ABOUT CENTER SERVICES

Welcome to the Center and thank you for choosing to use our services. It is important for you to be informed about the nature of psychotherapy, the policies and procedures governing the help you will receive here, the fees for our services, and your rights as a client. In this package there is a place for you to sign, indicating your general consent to treatment. If you are a veteran, active service member, spouse, surviving spouse, or child of a veteran or active service member (including, of course, step-children, and foster children), please let us know. We have many resources and discounted services for military families through our Hope for Heroes program.

Psychotherapy: "Counseling" and "psychotherapy" (therapy) are often used interchangeably to indicate forms of psychological help that address various kinds of personal and family distress (e.g., depression, anxiety, marital conflicts). The goals of therapy range from the relief of symptoms to significant life change as one gains a better understanding of personal, interpersonal, and social circumstances.

The Center's clinical staff is comprised of licensed professional counselors, licensed social workers, licensed marriage and family therapists. We also have advanced therapists-in-training working under the supervision of licensed therapists to obtain advanced degrees or to meet eligibility standards for licensure. All staff work within the standards and ethical guidelines of state licensing laws, professional associations, and the national accreditation standards of the Samaritan Institute.

Therapy Process: Therapy begins with an intake interview to evaluate your needs and difficulties. Your therapist will work with you in determining the best course of treatment. Therapy has been shown to have many benefits (e.g., better relationships, solutions to specific problems, significant reductions in feelings of distress). Progress in therapy depends on several factors including regular attendance, talking openly with your therapist, motivation, effort, and life circumstances.

You and your therapist will decide together when your therapy is complete, but you may choose to withdraw at any time. If you decide to withdraw, it is recommended that you have at least one final appointment with your therapist rather than terminating by telephone, e-mail, or by not showing up. Periodically during therapy, you will be asked to complete a survey about your progress. Your answers are used to make adjustments to the therapy process and to assist the Center in assessing the strengths and weaknesses of our services.

The Samaritan Center believes in a spiritually integrated approach to treatment and we have expertise in including your faith/spiritual beliefs and practices as a part of the therapeutic process. It is our philosophy to work within your own belief system. Our therapists will not impose their personal beliefs upon you and will include discussion of spirituality/religion/faith in accordance with your expressed wishes.

Your Rights as a Client.

You have all of the rights established by the State of Texas governing clinical practices. These include:

- The right of consent to treatment,
- The right to seeking disclosure from your therapist about his or her qualifications,
- The right to requesting a different therapist,
- The right to end treatment at any time,
- The right to access the client grievance procedures,
- The right to have your clinical record kept private (see "Confidentiality" below),
- You also have the right to have any tests, procedures, and recommendations explained to you in simple terms, and you have the right to refuse such tests, procedures, or recommendations.

Confidentiality: What you tell your therapist will be kept confidential and will not be revealed to other persons or agencies without your written permission, except when mandated by state and federal statutes, court order, or as part of the professional practice of this Center. We believe in an integrated approach to wellness and may share information about you to other medical and/or mental health providers within or outside of the Center in order to maximize your treatment outcomes. For further information, please see our Notice of Privacy Practices and Privacy Practices Acknowledgement, and you may request a copy. Feel free to ask for clarification about anything you do not understand. Your privacy is very important to us, and we want to do everything possible to protect it.

Fees and Payment: The regular fee is $120.00 for a 55-minute session for most counseling services and $150.00 for the initial session. If you cannot afford the regular fee, the Center may adjust your fee taking into account your income and number of family members. Proper documentation is required. Payment of your agreed upon fee is due at the time of your appointment unless prior arrangements have been made. You may pay by cash, check or credit card.

Returned Checks and Rejected Credit Card Charges: A $25 fee is charged on all checks returned for non-sufficient funds and rejected credit card charges.

Insurance and Other Third-Party Payments: If you wish to use insurance or other third-party coverage (e.g., a managed care organization or employee assistance program) to pay for therapy, you are responsible for providing the Center with accurate and complete information. The Center does not guarantee that your insurance or other coverage will pay your claim. You are responsible for the account balance and for deductibles and co-payments required by your insurance or third-party payer.

Insurance & Confidentiality: Please be aware that your contract with your health insurance company requires that the Center provide the company with information relevant to the services you receive. At a minimum, we are required to provide a clinical diagnosis. Some companies require additional information such as treatment plans, summaries, or copies of your entire clinical record. We make every effort to release only the minimum information necessary for the purpose requested. This information will become a part of the insurance company files. Though all insurance companies claim to keep such information confidential, we have no control over what they do with your private information once it has been released.

Appointments and Cancellations: If an appointment is missed or cancelled with less than 24 hours notice, you will be charged for that session. We would prefer that you give us 48-hour notice of cancellation so that we may schedule someone else in that appointment time. This charge is not covered by insurance. If you use insurance, you will be charged a $50 cancellation fee for a missed appointment or late cancellation. If you are paying privately, you will be charged the fee you normally pay for a counseling session (minimum charge of $20 and maximum of $50 for a missed appointment or late cancellation). If you miss an appointment two weeks in a row or twice in one month, you may lose your recurring appointment time. We ask for a two-week notification of your plans to terminate treatment.

Legal Proceedings: The staff of the Center does not provide testimony in legal proceedings. However, if you choose to subpoena your therapist or your records, you agree to pay for any required preparation time, for your therapist's time out of the office, and for travel at a charge that may equal or exceed the Center's hourly rate.

Email Policy: We cannot ensure the confidentiality of information shared over email. Email is not a recommended form of communication with a therapist or staff member at Samaritan Center.

Emergencies: If you are a current client and have an urgent concern, we will schedule an appointment with your counselor or an available therapist as quickly as possible. If you are experiencing a life-threatening emergency and need mental health support after business hours, please contact either 9-1-1 or the National Suicide Hotline at 1-800-273-8255. If you are experiencing a non-life-threatening emergency that cannot wait until the next business day, please contact the Samaritan Center on-call staff at 512-656-5517 (please note that this is a wireless phone and therefore is not a secure line). After-hours messages can be left on the Center's voice-mail system at 512-451-7337, but do not leave an urgent message since these messages may not be reviewed until the next business day.

Grievances: You are encouraged to talk first with our staff about any concerns you may have about our services; however, if you prefer, you may file a formal grievance with the Clinical Director within 45 days of the time you become aware of a problem. We will investigate and attempt to resolve it within 30 days. If the problem is not resolved, the Center's CEO will investigate and prepare a written decision within 10 days. You may appeal the CEOs decision directly with the Center's Board of Directors within 14 days. The decision from the Board of Directors is final. You will not be threatened or penalized in any way for presenting your concerns informally by talking with staff, or formally by filing a grievance.

Consumer Complaints: To make a complaint against a counselor, you may fill out a written complaint form with the Texas Department of State Health Services. For more information, please visit www.dshs.texas.gov/plc/plc_complain.shtm or call 1-800-942-5540.

CANCELLATION AND NO SHOW POLICY

If it is necessary to cancel your scheduled appointment, we require that you call at minimum 24 hours in advance of your appointment. Your early cancellation will give another client the opportunity to receive services. A failure to present at the time of a scheduled appointment or cancel within 24 hours will be recorded as a "Cancel or No Show Charge" and the fee will be billed to your account.

If you use insurance, you will be charged a $50 cancellation fee for a missed appointment or late cancellation, which is not covered by insurance. If you are paying privately, you will be charged the fee you normally pay for a counseling session (minimum charge of $20 and maximum of $50 for a missed appointment or late cancellation).

While we understand that situations may arise, as a nonprofit organization, it is our goal to prevent no-shows that deter our timely care to all clients, therefore, sickness without documentation may not be a valid excuse for cancelling without a 24-hour notice.

We thank you in advance for your cooperation and understanding.

I acknowledge the Samaritan Center's cancellation and no-show policy.
