

SAMARITAN CENTER

Update from Cindy, Announcement

We are doing all we can to give back to our community and everyone who is suffering through this crisis. We are offering free services to all First Responders in Central Texas right now, in hopes that we can provide some comfort to these hard-working women and men.

Click Here to Read Cindy's Updates and Announcements

Read Press Release

Samaritan Center Blog - My Job Is Better Than Your Job

"Being an easily bored person, I do like variety in what I do. Because I see kids as well as adults, I might spend part of the day on the floor doing play therapy with a three-year-old and part of the day listening to the angst of being a teenager."

Read the Blog Now

Free Classes, Groups, and More!

New groups have opened up. Be sure to check the events page on Facebook for dates and times. Register by calling 512-451-7337, option 8.

New groups and classes include:

- Tai Chi
- Military Veterans Peer Group, Navigating the New Normal
- COVID-19 Coping Group
- Seeking Safety
- Spousal Support

Call 512-451-7337, option 8 to register.

Vision

We envision a healthy and compassionate community in which every individual achieves mental, physical, spiritual and social well-being.

Mission

We heal hearts, provide hope and enhance lives with a holistic approach to mental health for all ages, whole families and the military community.

Amari Daniels, Director
512-451-7337
amari@samaritan-center.org

PRESS RELEASE

First Responders: Release: 4/15/2020

Samaritan Center and Georgetown Health Foundation Partner to Deliver Mental Health Care to First Responders

Georgetown, Texas, April 15, 2020. Facing the COVID-19 crisis, Samaritan Center, in partnership with Georgetown Health Foundation, Samaritan Center's offering has services to continue working with our members in Georgetown, TX.

The health care response to the coronavirus, such as prevention and support staff, as well as all employees of the social service organizations who continue providing care, such as food, financial assistance, and childcare. Services available include individual and couples counseling, substance use and mental health assessment, support groups, and additional services, see page 2.

"We are grateful to have Samaritan Center as a great partner and hope that this initiative creates opportunities for those who need care in a time of need," said Peter Phillips, CEO/President of Georgetown Health Foundation.

"This is a challenging time for all of us and for those who are working on the frontlines, we extend our love and thank you for all that you do for the city, state and the nation. Our ongoing support for our members and the community is our top priority. We are here for you and your family. Contact us for more information at 512-451-7337, option 8 or at our website, www.samaritan-center.org.

©2020 Samaritan Center. All rights reserved. Samaritan Center is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization.

Samaritan Center provides counseling, peer support and holistic integrative services for individuals and groups of all ages. Services extend to the military and civilian members and are free of charge for qualifying low-income and uninsured members. They are also offering more free mental health resources and information through our website and Facebook page.

-341818-

Donate Now

Samaritan Center | \(512\) 451-7337

