During the event, Samaritan Center CEO, Cindy Long will explain that experts are predicting a mental health crisis related to the COVID-19 pandemic and the isolation and unemployment that has been thrown upon us. How we respond to this crisis will determine the health of our community for years to come.

Samaritan Center has responded by lowering fees and offering more free services. It is more important than ever that we raise funds so that we can help our neighbors who are suddenly in financial crisis, who have lost their medical insurance, and who have lost

We're so glad you've attended before! We hope you'll attend virtually this year!

In 2002, Samaritan Center held the first Ethics in Business Awards event. Since 2012, this event has been coordinated by RecognizeGood.

Nominations are made by community members and then researched and vetted by hand-selected business students at Concordia University Texas during their study of ethical principles. Each finalist is then interviewed in person, and students prepare a rigorous, in-depth review before presenting their findings to an independent selection committee made up of hand-selected Leadership Austin alumni.

All finalists are recognized and award recipients announced at the awards luncheon, attended by hundreds of Texas business leaders and growing in size each year.

This year, it is so important that we join our community in recognizing businesses and individuals who support social justice, respect, fairness, honesty and the kind of sustainability that only happens when we all work together to do what's right for our community.

Vision

We envision a healthy and compassionate community in which every individual achieves mental, physical, spiritual and social well-being.

Mission

We heal hearts, provide hope and enhance lives with a holistic approach to mental health for all ages, whole families and the military community.
