Samaritan Center's Mission

UNITING FOR MENTAL HEALTH

Samaritan Center is at the forefront of advancing holistic mental healthcare for children and adults and has been serving Central Texas for 50 years. Holistic care includes professional counseling uniquely combined with integrative medicine, support groups, and peer support. Samaritan Center advances health equity by prioritizing underserved populations. Samaritan Center's largest program Hope for Heroes, established in 2007, addresses the unique mental health needs of veterans, and their spouses and children.
